ACR Job Vacancy 2023

Action for Conflict Resolution (ACR) is a national and non-political organization that bridges important gaps in supporting the government in serves delivery to the grassroots communities, in order to enable a durable peace in South Sudan. ACR has been reconnecting youth to promote peace in Bentiu through support from the Norwegian People's Aid (NPA) from 2017 up to date.

ACR has also implemented Education program in Rubkona, Guit and Mayom counties with funding from UNICEF in collaboration with State Ministry of Education. ACR's main areas of focus include; peace building, protection, Education, good governance and livelihoods.

ACR is a change maker in South Sudan through engaging youth and communities in peace building through sport, Youth-led dialogues and cultural events as a strategy to mitigate conflict, organize campaigns on women rights and child protection. We also work with internally displaced persons by establishing temporary learning classrooms/space (TLS) and latrines. ACR also believe in respect for culture and empowering local capacities, ideas, and solutions. We work with communities to build trust and work with integrity in ensuring that we are principled, forthright, and sincere. We also engage communities in the project identification and implementation as a tool of empowering and ensuring ownership of the projects. ACR registered with RRC since 2015
